

The meaning behind the name

Contributed by James Perry Zammit
Sunday, 04 January 2009
Last Updated Tuesday, 27 October 2009

In December of 2008, The Malta Kendo Institute was christened with the Japanese name KOSEIBUKAN by Sensei Paul Budden 7th Dan Renshi and Sensei Kazuyo Mstuda 5th Dan in honor of the development of kendo in the Maltese Islands by Sensei Zammit. The Dragonfly was chosen the kamon it is a creature that can only fly forward and represents fire (dragon) as in to conquer and achieve. The description below shows not only the literal meaning but also the relationship to the great Japanese Kendo Sensei.